

CHALLENGE 1

The CD player/radio in one of the rooms at church has stopped working and is beyond repair. Lots of groups use it on a regular basis to play CDs. The radio function is not used. The PCC have set aside £200 to replace it.

Your job is to advise the PCC about the replacement.

You may want to use the catalogues to find something suitable.

What do you recommend?

CHALLENGE 2

You are considering buying a toaster. Your old one exploded months ago and ever since you have been using the grill to toast bread.

Although this works well it would be more convenient to have a new appliance. Generous relatives gave you £200 for your birthday to spend as you see fit.

You may want to use the catalogues to find something suitable.

What is your decision?

CHALLENGE 3

You are taking a two week holiday this year. Although you have several small weekend bags you don't have a suitcase large enough for all you need to take with you. One large case or even a rucksack would make life easier when it comes to negotiating airports and give space for presents!

You may want to use the catalogues to find something suitable.

What is your luggage choice?

CHALLENGE 4

The catering committee at church has raised £200 to buy kitchen equipment. At the top of the list is a food processor to help them with church events. They primarily need a machine that will slice, chop and puree food.

You may want to use the catalogues to find something suitable.

What equipment will you purchase?

CHALLENGE 5

Over the years much of the church crockery has been lost and broken. Currently there are only about 20 complete place settings in plain white. In total 50 place settings are needed in total are needed. There is a budget (£200) set aside to buy some new crockery.

You may want to use the catalogues to find something suitable.

What will meet the need?

CHALLENGE 6

For the last three years you have been using a disposable camera for your holiday photos. This year, for better quality prints, you would like to buy a digital camera. It will be useful for holiday snaps and other leisure activities. You have £200 you won in a competition.

You may want to use the catalogues to find something suitable.

What is your choice??