

Micah6: v 6-8

With what shall I come before the LORD and bow down before the exalted God?

Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousand rivers of oil?

Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

He has showed you, O man, what is good.

And what does the LORD require of you?

To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

	I am not sure about this!	What do I bring to God? What is my offering?
	I can see things in a new light	How do I act justly? Who needs justice and what can I do?
	Now that's something I can do!	How do I show mercy? Can I use my money- giving, spending, saving to show mercy?
	I'd like to discuss this more	What does walking humbly mean? How do I show my love to God and thanks for all he has done for me?

In small groups discuss this passage and write a question you have or a thought that has come to you in each of the boxes above. Some questions have been suggested - you add your own!